

Netsukuku

Open the world, then the net

<http://netsukuku.freaknet.org>

December 27, 2006

Abstract

Netsukuku is a P2P network system designed to handle a large number of nodes with minimal CPU and memory resources. It can be easily used to build a worldwide distributed, anonymous and not controlled network,

In China, the whole net is constantly watched by several computers filtering

2.2 No name, no identity

$$\frac{\wedge \wedge}{-}$$